

No. 19-17286

Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit

Tatyana Evgenievna Drevaleva

Plaintiff-Appellant Pro Se

v.

- 1) The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs
- 2) Mr. Robert Wilkie, Esq. in his capacity as an acting Secretary of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Defendants-Appellees

The District Court for Northern California,

case No. 3:19-cv-01454-WHA, Hon. Judge William Alsup

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF MY PETITION FOR JUDICIAL RECUSAL.

Plaintiff-Appellant Pro Se Tatyana Drevaleva is hereby submitting a Notice of Withdrawal of my Urgent Petition for Judicial Recusal.

I am making this Notice of Withdrawal for three reasons:

- 1) I changed my mind
- 2) I am not eligible to request to change the Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §455(f), “Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, if any ... judge .... to whom a matter has been assigned would be disqualified, after substantial judicial time has been devoted to the matter, because of the appearance or discovery, after the matter was assigned to him or her ... disqualification is not required if the ... judge ... as the case may be, divests himself or herself of the interest that provides the grounds for the disqualification”
- 3) Because Hon. Judge William Alsup twice refused to recuse himself from judging my cases and promised to give me fair hearings and proceedings.

Conclusion.

Because I changed my mind, and because Hon. Judge William Alsup has already devoted a substantial amount of time and effort to judging five my related cases, and because Hon. William Alsup twice refused to recuse himself from judging my cases, I am withdrawing my Demand for Disqualification. I am respectfully asking Hon. Judge William Alsup to continue judging my five related cases.

I declare under the penalty of perjury and under Federal laws that all foregoing is true and correct. Executed at San Francisco, CA on January 18, 2020.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Tatyana Drevaleva
